DETAILED ACTION

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-7, drawn to an arm, classified in class 414, subclass 722.
- II. Claims 8-10, drawn to a method of assembling an arm, classified in class 29, subclass 428.

Inventions I and II are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make another and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case the arm could be made of separate parts welded together in place instead of welded into a plate and bent into an arm.

Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art in view of their different classification, restriction for examination as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 8-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Regarding claims 8-10, these claims are improper method claims since they lack active steps, i. e., "ing" steps. See Ex Parte Kharasch 39USPQ123.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-4, 6 and 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Ball, et al in view of Rogers.

It would have been obvious to construct the arm in Ball comprising thick and thin sections in view of the teaching in Rogers (figure 2).

Regarding the product by process steps in the instant claims these steps are given no patentable weight since the claims are apparatus claims.

Regarding claim 7, note the base plate and boss in Ball. The exact thickness of the plates would have been an obvious matter of design and/or choice dependent upon the expected loading.

Claims 1-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Ball, et al. in view of Japanese reference 11-21939.

It would have been obvious to use a corner and plate arrangement as set forth in claims 1, 3, 4 and 5 in lieu of the plate in Ball in view of the arms in figures 1, 5 and 7 of the Japanese reference.
